Planned use of Material (optional):

USE OF MATERIALS: The Mansfield Library (Library) welcomes you to use materials in our collections that are in the public domain and to make fair use of materials as defined by copyright law. The supply of a digital or analog copy is not equivalent to permission to publish or reuse the material in any way beyond research, teaching, and private study. For other uses, such as publication or online distribution, permission must be obtained from the item's rights holder. The disclosure of certain information pertaining to identifiable living individuals without the consent of those individuals may have legal ramifications (e.g., a cause of action under common law for invasion of privacy may arise if facts concerning an individual's private life are published that would be deemed highly offensive to a reasonable person) for which the University of Montana assumes no responsibility.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS: Copyright of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies, photographs, or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research. If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of fair use, that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

RIGHTS: The Library does not claim to control the rights for reproduction for all materials in its collections. Many images and other materials in its collections are protected by copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity rights, or other interests not owned by UM. The publishing party assumes all responsibility for determining whether any permissions relating to copyright, privacy, publicity, trademark, or any other rights are necessary for an intended use, and for obtaining all required permissions.

The Library only provides permission to publish materials in its collections when copyright is clearly owned by UM. The Library will not do research concerning the existence and/or whereabouts of rights holders. In most cases, the Library will not facilitate requests for permission. To the extent that the Library provides available information about potential rights holders, the Library does not warrant the accuracy of such information and shall not be responsible for any inaccurate information.

The requestor agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Library, UM and its agents and employees, from and against any and all liabilities, losses, demand, penalties, costs, expenses, attorneys’ fees, lawsuits, fines, judgments, or causes of actions, including but not limited to claims relating to infringement of copyright, trademark, invasion of rights of privacy or publicity, or libel that arise either directly or indirectly from any use by the requestor of the images and/or materials provided by the Library.
CREDIT: All reproductions of images and materials must be credited to Archives and Special Collections, Mansfield Library, University of Montana as the source.

The Library reserves the right to refuse permission and reproductions to anyone who does not agree to these conditions.

I have read and will abide by the terms outlined on this form.
